D03-P01

13 November 2013, 12:00: the employee tells the managing director that the landlord needs the signed lease by the end of that week and asks whether changes are needed.

D03-P02

Nineteen minutes later, the director replies: “Ok just sign it please”. At 13:20 the subsequent conversation ends with the director’s message: “There’s no problem. Just asked”. These short English phrases are quoted in the German judgment; the surrounding account is an English reconstruction.

D03-P03

The director later alleged a telephone withdrawal of authority. This exercise contains no recording, telephone log or separate contemporaneous written withdrawal. The judgment reports that the other exhibits relied on did not even mention the calls.

This page is not an original email export. It preserves the reported sequence without inventing email addresses, headers, attachments or a transcript of the alleged call.
